Today sees the competition for the famous F.A. Cup start in real earnest with all the 1st and 2nd Division Clubs entering today games, and such is the public appeal that to days match is an all ticket affair, the demand far exceeding the supply.

No doubt the various clubs will be hoping to reach Wembley, but as usual after todays games we shall see the usual shocks and surprises.

Given fine weather for todays game we should witness some great football, and in conclusion may the best team win.
